Celebrating 33 Years of Collecting!

Uhl Collectors Society

Summer 2018

From The President's Desk

News from the President:

Our 33rd Annual Convention is just around the corner. If you have not booked your hotel room, you should hurry as there are a limited numbers of rooms.

The board members are continuing to implement creative ways to make positive changes in the society, as well as, gain new members, and spice up the convention. I want to give my wife, Julie a special "Thanks" for her help in adding a new addition to this year's convention. Here's a little hint; it will keep you searching.

Also at the convention, make sure you take the opportunity to sit in on the presentation with our special guest speaker Les Bain. Les will be bringing some pieces and discussing his favorite potter, Jane Uhl. Be sure to stop by the banquet room to see Tom Uebelhor fantastic display of Uhl pottery photos.

I want to acknowledge and give my appreciation for all those members who reserved a table for vendor sales for Friday and Saturday. Please keep in mind that the vendors will be selling before and right after the Saturday night auction. You might find that piece you have always been looking for to complete your collection.

Back from the past, we will be displaying the Uhl look-alikes in the vendor sales room on the Friday evening. See if you can spot the difference! These small differences can assure you get the real Uhl!

I would like to mention again, if you are interested in getting involved with the club (no matter how small of a role), please do not hesitate to contact me. We need our members to be involved to continue for the club to be successful.

I have included in the newsletter, auction guidelines, along with the four-point scale that will be used during auction registration. Please make certain that you check the newsletter for details.

Please join us at our Saturday Business Meeting, as we will be offering a chance for you to win a "Happy Uhling" item, along with some other giveaways and a beautiful curio cabinet. An election will be held to fill the positions of Secretary, Treasure and open Board Members during this meeting. Please consider taking a position.

Finally, the board is confident that you will be happy with 2018 Uhl Commemorative. Quality was of utmost importance, as we worked with our potter on this year's commemorative. We hope that you have enjoyed the newsletters. We look forward to hearing all about some of your great finds and the fellowship we find at the 2018 Convention. Happy Uhl Hunting.

UHL President,

Nathan Posey
