

CLASSIFIED UHL INFO

BUY*SELL*TRADE*UHL

Free with your membership, send me a list for publication including your name and telephone number, description and price of items you want to acquire or sell. This newsletter is a marketplace for you!

#####

WELCOME * WELCOME * WELCOME * WELCOME * WELCOME * WELCOME

These folks have joined our membership since publication of the last newsletter in December:

Suzanne & Kean MacOwan Frankfort, Indiana
Jim Hall Evansville, Indiana
Sandra & Jeff Sanders Bloomington, Indiana
Peggy Julian Evansville, Indiana
Roberta & Charles Probus Newburgh, Indiana
Connie Hackman Carmel, Indiana

Inquiries about membership have come in from New York, Arizona, Minnesota, Washington, Oklahoma, Iowa, North Carolina and Indiana from the article in the Trader.

#####

1988 COMMEMORATIVE

The committee has selected the piece to be copied and set up the rules for purchasing; no price has been set at this date. Watch the April newsletter for details and ordering information as well as other important data regarding our annual meeting in June.

??

SOMETHING TO PONDER IN YOUR IDLE MOMENTS:

How many 1" miniature jugs could you fit into a 60 gal. crock jar?
(I don't have an answer.)

UHL COLLECTOR'S SOCIETY NEWSLETTER

FEBRUARY 1988

Published bi-monthly at P.O. Box 116, Orland, IN 46776

Saturday, February 6

Good Morning, Friends and Fellow Collectors;

It's time again to sit back and relax for a few minutes as you read this month's UHL news. I hope you will find something of special interest to you.

A lot of mail has come in since the last newsletter because it's time to pay annual dues but most of you did not give me any news for this publication. Thanks to those of you who did.

Another source of several pieces of mail in the last two weeks has come from the terrific article in the January 20, 1988 issue of The Antique Trader Weekly written by free lance writers and researchers Don and Irma Brewer. Thanks to the Feldmeyers for sharing in photographs from their collection for this article. I will be sending a letter to the editor of the Trader in appreciation for this advertising for our society. It has brought us new members from outlying states and much interest from others who wanted information about joining us in membership that I hope to hear from again soon.

The big UHL talk this winter has been of the Lin-festy auction. You'll find some comments inside "From the Members" as well as announcement of an upcoming auction the end of this month.

Several of you have not sent your dues to date for 1988. Please take care of this right away so that you will stay on the mailing list for this year. Dues are still $10 per household per year.

Until next time, don't forget to write and tell me of your adventures for the next newsletter and.....

Happy Hunting,
Sue Uhl, Sec.-Treas.

FROM THE MEMBERS.....

from Don Johnson-

Question: What catalog reprints are available for purchase and where?

from Shelly Crawford-

Question: How many members are in the society?

Editor's Note- As of 2-5-88, there are 203.

from Leah Blann-

Recent UHL purchases include Scottie Dog Feeder for $80, 1 qt. egg beater jar w/lid for $18, #10 brindle basketweave bowl for $30. Lack of time and money stopped them there! Also seen for sale at a show 2 Dillsboro jugs @$750, 12 oz. blue grape stein @$120, 1933 Christmas jug @$300, set of six blue coffee mugs @$800.

from Linda Summers-

Suggestion for meeting: UHL auction for members only.

Editor's Note: Let me hear from you on this and we'll try to arrange something.

from Leah Blann-

Suggestion for meeting: Reserved room on Friday night for games, show and tell, etc.

Editor's Note: We are planning to have an un-organized time on Friday night for those driving in to get together for making acquaintances, etc. A couple's motel room just isn't big enough; we found that out last year!

Jay O'Mullane-

Wire is joining our membership. Prize find--1 gal. bellied pitcher, glazed blue, stippled over white and it is marked!

from Steve Brundage-

Suggestions for newsletter: Classified section and answers to questions in previous letters! Come on, members, help!

(from the members)

from Phyllis O'Neal-

Recent birthday present was a stamped sponge pitcher. Purchased a rose refrigerator jug w/cap. Attended Lenfesty auction for entertainment!

from Greg Shine-

Thought the Lenfesty auction prices were reasonable compared to their area (Iowa).

from Sarah Turner-

Collecting rose colored pieces. Purchased a bowl in Grand Rapids, (MI) wants to complete the set.

from Howard Gardner of the Blue and White Pottery Club-saw the article in the Trader; wanted me to mention his club in the newsletter and said he would do the same for us in theirs. (Some of our members belong to that club, too.) Their annual meeting this year will be held June 10-11 at the Holiday Inn in Hannibal, MO. Their club is older than ours and has twice the membership.

from President Jim Cummings-

Christmas present from daughter-in-law to Jim: a windbreaker with the UHL logo cross-stitched on it. What a lovely idea and wouldn't I be pleased to have one, too! Sounds like a good moneymaking idea for some cross-stitcher with a lot of time.

Also suggestion to have a room for Friday night rapping before our convention since his motel room wasn't big enough to get everyone into at the same time!

DEEPEST SYMPATHY

With regret, we extend the news to you that UHL member Eloise DeVoy, Evansville, Indiana died in December as the result of an automobile accident. She is survived by her husband Bill who is also an UHL member.

Be sweet to someone this month. Happy Valentine's Day!