WELCOME, NEW MEMBERS

Please add these names to your list.

Pam & Greg Michael R# 2 Box 131 Flora, IN 46929-9713 219-967-4442

Maura & Kevin Frazier 1402 N. Apple Street Greenfield, IN 46140 Unlisted

Connie & Brian Dilger 1225 Weed Lane Vincennes, IN 47591 812-882-3243

Terry L. Walker 2900 Veach Road Owensboro, KY 42301 502-273-3817

*We'll look forward to your contributions to our society and our newsletter. Ed.

CORRECTIONS AND CHANGES

Joann & Carson Smith P. D. Box 87 Knightstown, IN 46148

Evelyn & Kenneth Carlisle 333 Lantern Lane N. Ft. Myers, FL 33917

Iris & Jim Allen 429 N. Halsted Court Indianapolis, IN 46214 317-271-9175

Jeanie Allen 429 N. Halsted Court Indianapolis, IN 46214 317-271-9175

Please make these changes on your address lists.

UHL Collector's Society

Sue Uhl Maynard 3570 Candlewood Street Corona, CA 91719

FIRST CLASS

UHL COLLECTOR'S SOCIETY NEWSLETTER

------Published-Bi-Monthly-at-3570-Candlewood-Street,-Corona,-CA-91719-----Tel.: (714)735-9724 A Not-For-Profit Organization For Collectors of Uhl Pottery, Stoneware, & Memorabilia

DCTOBER 1990

Autumn Greetings, UHL Collectors;

Autumn = the beginning of the season for home/estate auctions in the Midwest. More opportunities to search through boxes, chicken coops and barns; scanning tables and wagon beds loaded with "stuff" in search of a find. And then the excitement when the auctioneers' helper holds that special piece high in the air and the bidding begins. Hope is high, the heart beats faster; is there a chance that you'll get in on the bidding? Oh, yes! Is it going to be sold for a price that you can reasonably see yourself paying for that item? The auctioneer cries, "SOLD", to the highest bidder. The time for elation or defeat has come.

Auctions, a highlight among collectors of old things. I'd really appreciate it if you'd take a moment to jot down a note and mail it to me for the next newsletter of your experiences. Or send a note about prices in your area. Are you looking for a particular piece of UHL? Let us know. Do you have some UHL you want to sell or trade? This newsletter is your market made up of only readers who have an interest in the same commodity --UHL--. In order to keep this newsletter going, I need your help. Thanks in advance.

You should all have received your UHL member address lists a few weeks ago. All members of our society were mailed a copy. However, there are a few members who requested that their membership information not be published; this request has been honored. This unpublished list has been given only to the president and the former newsletter editor. So, if you have been alarmed at not locating your name on the list, this is the reason. I might mention that the published list is given to auction firms who request it in order to send you advertisements of outstanding offerings of UHL.

News of past-president Jim Cummings has come to me via letter from his wife, Lucy. Jim had a large tumor removed on August 9 from his throat. I'm glad to share with you that it was benign. He is recovering nicely. But I heard elsewhere that Jim and Lucy were at the Covered Bridge Festival in northwest Indiana. Glad you were able to make that special show, Jim.

UHL isn't easy to find in Southern California. I have found a few pieces....for good prices. However, I saw a blue and white quart size pitcher in an antique mall for a hefty price. Evidently someone bought it because on my next visit to that mall it was gone. My favorite piece purchased out here is a canteen advertising Jug. I'll try to include a picture of it inside.

Happy hunting.

P.S. Thanks a million, contributors!!

Sue Uhl Maynard