U.C.S. MEMBERS BELIEVE IT OR NOT!!!!

This is tooooooo good not to share with all of you. Brian Dilger's employer relocated him and Connie from Vincennes, IN to Schaumburg, IL last month. The funny part of it is their street locations. Connie says there was no planning involved in choice of street names. They moved from "Weed Lane" to "Thistle Court". Connie's grandma says they need to move to flowers!!!

FOR SALE

U.C.S. COMMEMORATIVES with original boxes. 1988, 1989, 1990. $50.00 Each.

The UHL Collector's Society is a not-for-profit organization made up of UHL collectors for the furtherance and knowledge of said stoneware and pottery. A bi-monthly newsletter is published at 3570 Candlewood St., Corona, CA 91719. Annual dues are ten dollars per family payable in January.

APRIL 1991

GREETINGS, FELLOW COLLECTORS:

Busy days are upon us as we make plans for this years' convention. Thanks to all of you who are helping in any way with the work of the convention this year. We are planning on it being a terrific time of fun and education as well as renewing acquaintances. Hope to see a lot of new faces this year, too.

Personally, I was back in Indiana last month to be with my parents for ten days and to take care of legal and financial arrangements for them in their time of ill health. That time away caused a mail pile-up here, but I'm doing okay with it. Hope to get all correspondence out this weekend that is still laying here.

Two memberships did not receive their February newsletter and I have no idea who you are. If you'll let me know, I'll be sure to get one out to you. They were returned to me by the post office, portions of them anyway; but no addresses.

If anyone knows the whereabouts of Tony Booker, please let me know. I have 3 different addresses and none of them appear to be accurate. I'd like to send their newsletters to them if possible.

Late commemorative orders can still be accepted. If for some reason you have not ordered yours and you wish to do so, please send the money in right away. The cost is $15 at the convention, $20 by mail.

The commemoratives are finished and in our possession. This years' piece is going to be special. You won't be disappointed!

A block of 25 guest rooms has been reserved for us at the Days Inn with group rate. Please make your reservation soon if you are planning on staying there. The rate this year is $40 per night + 5% sales tax for a total of $42.00. Be sure to tell them you are with our group to receive your discount. The toll free number is 1-800-742-7482 direct to Jasper.

Deadline for reservations to the convention is May 31. Please adhere to this to help me with the last minute rush of getting ready for the trip and convention. We plan to drive and it takes a while to get there from here!

I have received a lead for a fantastic UHL history story if I can arrange an interview with a lady who now lives in the Tuscon area. I am drooling!!! at the prospect as my information sounds like a feature article for an upcoming newsletter.

Please plan to be with us at the convention if you can at all. Most of your food will be provided by the society and the format looks great. If I have not been descriptive enough with the convention info inside, just contact one of the officers and we will be glad to help you. I'm trying to remember all there is to remember but you've heard of 'life after forty'!

Al is looking forward to meeting you good folks. And there is no doubt in my mind that the compliment of UHL pieces at our show and auction will "awe" him! Pieces out here are very, very few. My collection is very small now so he's in for real treat. Do some of you newer collectors relate??
