

The UHL Collector's Society is a not-for-profit organization made up of UHL collectors for the furtherance and knowledge of said stoneware and pottery. A bi-monthly newsletter is published at 3570 Candlewood St., Corona, CA 91719. Annual dues are ten dollars per family payable in January.

Season's Greetings

Dear Friends of the U.C.S.;

Al and I wish for you and your loved ones a memorable holiday season in which you can reach beyond the hustle and bustle and really enjoy each other and a true Christ-mas.

As some of you know, this year my papa passed away and my mother suffered a serious stroke. Saturday we received a phone call from Mother saying she will be coming out here for a visit; her doctor has given her the go-ahead. We are excited and are looking forward to having her and a friend to share in our little world for a couple of weeks.

The executive council met recently at the home of president Steve Brundage. Out of that meeting came a price increase for the 1992 commemorative. The cost is $20.00 this year.

No exciting Uhl-ing stories from our house this time. But there is a big WOW!!! from Ohio inside you'll enjoy reading about. Thanks to all of you who have written in the past weeks.

Our sympathy goes out to Ruth Moll in the death of husband Pete last month. He had a long battle with cancer. She needs our support during this very difficult time.

Ginny Rhodehamel sent a note of thanks for the story on her family in the October newsletter. And a correction in my spelling; her maiden name and, thus that of her father, O.D. Perry the Pot Peddler, was incorrectly spelled 'Parry'. My apologies to Ginny and thanks for the correction.

Since you are going to be sending in your checks for dues and commemoratives after you receive this newsletter, won't you take an extra piece of paper and send me a news item about UHL in your life??? Photos are especially nice.

Until February, happy hunting!!!

Orville Holm
sent a note.
They have a pr.
of rose baby
shoes and mini jugs in their collection including some Christmas jugs.
Not much UHL
in Washington.

They hope to be able to attend convention in a couple of years
when they retire.

do come in pairs.

SOCIETY HONORS SHELTON WITH ONE-OF-A-KIND COMMEMORATIVE

ROGER SHELTON, UCS President 1989-1991 was honored with a one-of-a-kind commemorative piece in recognition of his service in that office.

The 2 lb. covered butter crock has the UHL bottle logo with the words "Uhl Pottery Co. Huntingburg, IN" on the outside.

Inside, the imprint reads:

Roger Shelton
UHL Collectors Society
President
1989-1991

Many Thanks

The picture isn't a sharp image, but be assured that Roger wears an appreciative smile as he holds a new and precious piece of his and Bert's collection!!!
