The UHL Collector's Society is a not-for-profit organization made up of UHL collectors for the furtherance and knowledge of said stoneware and pottery. A bi-monthly newsletter is published at 3570 Candlewood St., Corona, CA 91719. Annual dues are ten dollars per family payable in January.

FEBRUARY 1991

GREETINGS, FELLOW COLLECTORS;

This writing comes at a time of war; the first time in the history of the younger UHL members. I'd just like to share a short portion of a letter with you that I have appreciated and found support from as a supporting citizen of my country. Thank you for your patriotism, too.

We are also citizens of the U. S. A. As such we must realize that during war time there are going to be many subtle pressures to drive a wedge between us and our duly elected officials. In the official policy of the communist rules for revolution, three of their stated goals are to "get control" of all means of publicity and thereby:

"Divide the people into hostile groups by constantly harping on controversial matters!... "Destroy the people's faith in their natural leaders by holding the latter up to contempt, ridicule and obloquy."

During the times of national crisis the evil minded opportunists are going to try to take advantage of anyone who will listen. Be sure to remember that "the Holy Spirit clearly says that in the latter times, some will abandon the faith and follow deceiving spirits and things taught by demons." I Tim. 4:1.

As of 01/31/91, 114 commemoratives were reserved with a few more than that number paying 1991 dues. Enclosed you will find a brief financial statement for 1990 which is published in the first newsletter of every year, according to our by-laws. If you have questions that are not answered by the given report, please feel free to contact me.

The annual UHL convention will be held the third weekend in June in Jasper, IN. Please mark your calendars now and plan to attend. Al & I are planning to make it back this year. He is anxious to increase his as well as to see what it is that has me so interested. I'm guessing he will be overwhelmed when he sees all of the pieces of UHL that weekend that will be at the convention and the surrounding antique shops. It's an occasion to find UHL out here and much more rare to find a piece marked with the UHL name. But the excitement is in the looking anyway.

A winter "must", if you can at all, in the southwest, is the annual Rock and Mineral Show and Pow-Wow held in February in Quartzsite, AZ. It's an easy drive from Phoenix westbound on I-10. All winter it's a haven for campers; many of them dry camping in the desert. Thus there's an ongoing flea market but the R & M Show is the "really big show". We are planning to be there this year. I'll report in the next newsletter if we see any UHL there.

There are many address changes this year, UHL members. Some of you have moved and others have had the post office change your addresses. What I am planning to do is one alphabetical listing of everyone. I will shoot for a mailing date by the end of April; hopefully sooner. I trust the order of this listing will be pleasing to everyone. Most of you have the listing by state that you may want to update yourselves.

This month there are four themes to work from in art spots for the newsletter. So you'll find all of them scattered throughout!

Happy hunting,

Sue
