

UHL
COLLECTORS
SOCIETY

OCTOBER/NOVEMBER 1992

HELLO EVERYONE:

Here it is time for another newsletter. The past two months seem to have just slipped away very quickly. It has been a very busy two months, for the UHL Collector's in the southern part of Indiana. There has been several large auctions, which has brought many of the die hard UHL Collector's together as well as new Collector's. Everyone really seems to have a good time together talking about there favorite topics FAMILY and UHL. Then comes the rare item that everyone is waiting for and the bidding becomes very fierce. By some of the prices that I will share with you later in this newsletter you can see for yourself what I mean by the word fierce.

Fall is upon us and during the past week the trees have started to make there annual change. I hope that everyone enjoys the fall colors as much as I do, and with this change we all know that the auctions, yard sales, and outdoor flea markets will soon be slowing down. During the winter months we all know that it is just a little harder to find that special piece of UHL, so this may be your last chance to find that rare piece you are looking for before winter is here.

In the following letter that I received recently in the mail, is some very important information that should be acted on by all members that plan to attend next years convention. The letter was written to us from our President, STEVE BRUNDAGE.

Someone told me that I made running the Uhl Convention look easy. I guess Mark Twain was right, you can fool some of the people some of the time. Actually I had a great time. I was able to purchase some pieces of Uhl that I really liked including one very large jar with a very large crack but I am amazed at how many toys it holds.

There were a few rough spots but we survived and I feel even thrived. A large number of people were happy about the no smoking policy. I am still receiving notes in support of that request. Also a decision has been made regarding the biggest question during the convention, should we meet in another location next year. The answer was a firm yes. The 1993 Uhl Collectors Society convention will be held at the Holiday Inn in Jasper, Indiana on June 25th and 26th. The Days Inn had been very good to us but their convention manager did tell me that we were about to out grow them. After observing how many new members did attend this years event for the first time, I beleive we were wise to find a

A Jasper collector found these two jugs while on vacation. At a very reasonable price I may add. Nice find for one trip!

We would like to take this space to thank everyone for the words of encouragement in letters, phone calls, and in personal contact that we have received for the past and up-coming newsletters. Please keep the letters and information coming!

THANK YOU ALL
