APRIL / MAY 1994

HI:

Is the Uhl hunting going fine? It is so slow around here that I wonder what is keeping everyone's interest. All of the local collectors say they can't find any pottery. I personally have not added a piece of uhl in the past six months. I thought I was loosing it, but seems others in our area have done just about as good or bad as I. In the past two weeks the auctions have started for the year and a few pieces have been listed. I have been unable to go and have had no reports from anyone.

I really need your help in writing this newsletter! Without some information it is hard to put together a good paper for everyone to enjoy. I have two daughters that are seven and four years old. I have decided to spend more time with them and less time at auctions. So I desperately could use some help from those of you that have time to go to auctions and antique shows. Just drop me a small note with the description, condition, color, and prices that you see these items sell for. This is the information that most of our readers are interested in.

In the past I have called on some of my most faithful and helpful informants to dig up some information for me. I really do appreciate all of their great efforts, but I feel that it is so unfair for them to help me out all of the time. This will be the shortest newsletter that I have produced in the past two years, but the mail box has been empty day after day.

I can use black and white or color photo's as long as they are clear and have a close-up shot of the items. I will put your letter in word for word or rewrite it. I can use your name or not use your name. Just let me know and send in some info!

Enough for the bad news now lets move on to better topics.

This will be the last newsletter for some of you because you did not meet the March 31st deadline. I hope those of you that are not renewing have just lost interest and are not parting on a sour note. We have enjoyed working for you in the past.

The next letter is from Tom Uebelhor who is our secretary/treasurer. He states as of December 31 1993 the club bank balance was $4,112.06.

Also anyone having changes in Friday night dinner reservations or Saturday breakfast reservations that differ from what you sent to us please let us know as soon as possible. We need to change our records accordingly.

If you were going to pick up your commemorative but your plans have changed please get your receipt to the person that will be picking it up for you. If you will not be able to pick it up like you originally planned please send a note and a check for $7.50 and we will ship it to you.

We have received several reservation forms back with a new address on them. It is hard to catch all of the new address changes so please write address change on the form somewhere so we can change our records. This should help you get the newsletter and other information in a more timely matter.

Also preparations are going well for the June convention. This year should be better than last, hope to see you all there!

In the last newsletter we were trying to find the number of the 8-1/2 inch tall Creme DeCoffee jug. The number in the bottom is definitely a #185 thanks to Tom Cummings who has a peach color jug. Then the #165 is a 11-1/2 inch Grecian jug and no two pieces have the same number.

After a long dry spell in our antique shopping, we visited a mall in Medford, OR today. Uhl pieces that we spotted but did not buy are a blue/white lined hotel cuspidor, a Boston Baked Beans pot, red-orange cookie jar and salt and pepper with painted flowers and two advertising miniatures. Uhl is not easily found on the west coast. This is extremely unusual to see in one visit.

What we did buy is a blue #34 Grecian miniature. Also, we hit the prize in one booth with several pieces in rose. We purchased a set of four cups and saucers, four 8 inch luncheon plates, three 5 inch porridge bowls and one 6 inch plate. In addition, a sugar and creamer set, a lipped ice water pitcher, and a b-8 batter bowl lined in white.

For fun, I looked up the original prices of most of these items. Purchased new, the dinnerware cost $3.20. The sugar and creamer .70 and ice water pitcher $1.00. The batter bowl was .70 and the #34 jug about .23 for a grand total of $5.83. We paid a bit more than that, but no complaints from us!

HAPPY HUNTING,
SUE MAYNARD

A recent letter from Alan Biby has created a question that we need help in answering. Many miniatures found today have had flowers hand painted on them over the glaze. Alan has bought a square jug, a pair of ladies slippers, an military boot, and a dutch shoe. All are unmarked but definitely Uhl, could it have been a home craft project? Alan bought a dutch shoe that seems to have the answer. It had a round foil label on the bottom, "Genuine HAND PAINTED KAULWARE Chicago".

Well Alan you and I have part of the answer, the painting was done by someone in Chicago. I also have a blue military boot with this same foil label on the back side of the boot.

Does anyone know the whole story behind these hand painted Uhl pieces. Please drop me a line so I can pass along this information.

Alan has made some rather nice purchases recently, a 16oz mug "ALPINE HOUSE HWY 66 EVANSVILLE" for a small $11.00 fee. A white slipper, white military boot, blue globe cookie jar (which needs a lid), and a yellow large dutch shoe.

Looks like Alan has had some great finds recently!
